

§ 1400.202

7 CFR Ch. XIV (1-1-01 Edition)

(b) Actively engaged in farming means, except as otherwise provided in this part, that the individual or entity, independently makes a significant contribution to a farming operation, of:

(1) Capital, equipment, or land, or a combination of capital, equipment, or land; and

(2) Active personal labor or active personal management, or a combination of active personal labor and active personal management.

(c) In determining if the individual or entity is actively contributing a significant amount of active personal labor or active personal management the following factors shall be taken into consideration:

(1) The types of crops and livestock produced by the farming operation;

(2) The normal and customary farming practices of the area; and

(3) The total amount of labor and management necessary for such a farming operation in the area.

(d) In order to be considered to be actively engaged in farming an individual or entity specified in §§ 1400.202 through 1400.210 must have:

(1) A share of the profits or losses from the farming operation commensurate with the individual's or entity's contribution to the operation; and

(2) Contributions to the farming operation that are at risk.

§ 1400.202 Individuals.

An individual shall be considered to be actively engaged in farming with respect to a farming operation if the individual makes a significant contribution of:

(a) Capital, equipment, or land, or a combination of capital, equipment, or land; and

(b) Active personal labor or active personal management, or a combination of active personal labor and active personal management.

§ 1400.203 Joint operations.

(a) A member of a joint operation shall be considered to be actively engaged in farming with respect to a farming operation if the member makes a significant contribution of:

(1) Capital, equipment, or land or a combination of capital, equipment, or land; and

(2) Active personal labor or active personal management or a combination of active personal labor and active personal management.

(b) If a joint operation separately makes a significant contribution of capital, equipment, or land, or a combination of capital, equipment, or land, and the joint operation meets the provisions of § 1400.201(d), the members of the joint operation who make a significant contribution of active personal management, or a combination of active personal labor and active personal management to the farming operation shall be considered to be actively engaged in farming with respect to such farming operation.

§ 1400.204 Limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations and other similar entities.

A limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company, corporation, or other similar entity shall be considered to be actively engaged in farming with respect to a farming operation if:

(a) The entity separately makes a significant contribution to the farming operation of capital, equipment, or land, or a combination of capital, equipment, or land; and

(b) The partners, stockholders, or members collectively make a significant contribution, whether compensated or not compensated, of active personal labor, active personal management, or a combination of active personal labor and active personal management to the farming operation. The combined beneficial interest of all the partners, stockholders, or members providing active personal labor or active personal management, or a combination of active personal labor and active personal management must be at least 50 percent.

§ 1400.205 Trusts.

A trust shall be considered to be actively engaged in farming with respect to a farming operation if:

(a) The entity separately makes a significant contribution to the farming operation of capital, equipment, or land, or a combination of capital, equipment, or land;
